

Asgard Employee Super

Fact sheet

superwiser

Not all super products are created equal and with a multitude of super products available, knowing which one to pick and what factors to base your selection decision on can be confusing. SuperWiser's super product assessment methodology considers numerous factors such as company structure, corporate governance, service delivery, investment performance, product fees, personal insurance cover & premium costs as well as projected annual retirement income.

We've assessed your super product as follows:

— NEGATIVES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High administration fees due to quality of investment choice menu • Historical investment returns for MySuper default • Not often tendered to current market 	+ POSITIVES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Product design • Numerous investment options within investment choice menu • Asset valuations are related to market

Your super is likely to be the second biggest financial benefit, funded by your employer. Managed well, your super can become a serious asset in around ten years.

If you ignore your super for ten years or more, you potentially cost yourself approximately over $100,000 off your final balance (in today's dollars).
